

HERTFORD HEATH IS HERTFORDSHIRE'S VILLAGE OF THE YEAR

The rain did hold off for a few minutes while the plaque for Hertford Heath becoming Hertfordshire's Village of the Year was unveiled by the Lord Lieutenant of Hertfordshire.

To mark the occasion, the Parish Council has obtained a chain of office for its Chairman. The centre piece of the chain is the Golden Jubilee medal designed by Mary Bourne and the mount has been engraved "Parish Council Chairman" around the outside.

Chloe James and Edward Dukes jointly received the Dorothy Abel Smith Rose Bowl.

Everyone then went into the Village Hall to admire the Horticultural Society's Annual Show and enjoyed a wonderful tea.
